Captain

Jure

Languages: English

Our amazing Captain Jure was born in Split but he lives on the island of Brac. In Split he finished his high school education as a chef but he ended in nautical tourism very quickly following his passion cause since he was a small boy he is tied to the sea. He calls the sea his friend that has been round all of his life or as he likes to emphasize – "I am in love with the sea!" His father was a shipbuilder and he used to observe boats in refit and in the sea later so they got under his skin. After his highschool he worked several seasons on a cruiser and then he decided to dedicate more of his time to following the dream of becoming a Captain. In 2017 he passed all the tests after having much experience on the sea. This will be his 17th year on the sea.

Growing up by the sea and being involved in shipbuilding with his father set his life path and brought him to what he enjoys the most – SAILING!

In his free time Jure loves diving and fishing so be sure he will take you to the best places, coves and catch fresh fish, octopus and he will show you how to truly indulge in everything that the Adriatic sea has to offer while on Corsario.

Chef

Luka

Languages: English

Chef Luka grew up in the small Dalmatian town of Omiš, located at the mouth of the river Cetina surrounded by mountains and the sea. His love of cooking grew as he grew up and after studying to be a Chef, he decided to accept an offer to work abroad in order to expand his culinary worldviews and get to know other cooking cultures.

After three years of working abroad, Chef Luka returns to his country with a rich experience and great discipline towards work. After returning home, Chef Luka is immediately given the opportunity to work on the island of Hvar, where he stays for 4 seasons. In the meantime, he gets an offer to work as a Chef in the famous Split restaurant, where he stays for 4 years.

After extensive experience in ala cart restaurants as a Chef, he gets an offer to work in a newly opened Hotel in his hometown and accepts the challenge of how to make the new hotel famous for its food. What Chef Luka wanted from day one, was to tell stories through his plates. As a Chef on a yacht CORSARIO, he will satisfy all the requirements of the guests and will provide them with real hedonism during their stay.

Sous Chef

Maja

Languages: English

Maja was born in the city of Split where she grew up and finished her highschool education. She worked in many restaurants as a sous chef where she became very skilled and fell in love with the business. She is a gourmet and very passionate towards creating and food. She likes the sea and working on boats because of the dynamics of different cruises and changes that Maja enjoys. Her free time is reserved for travelling, meeting new people and cultures. That inspires and motivates her. Long walks and meditation in the nature are her favorite things to do. Maja prefers working in a great environment and she contributes to a healthy work atmosphere with her creativity and is always looking forward to new challenges.

Maja has another passion that she decided to follow so she is a certified photographer as well, if you need more pictures of your vacation on Corsario she is the right person to go to.

First Mate

Pave

Languages: English

Even though his education went a different path; has a degree of a Master of Business Economy; he always knew he belongs out on the sea.

After graduating in the economics field, he proceeded to expand his nautical knowledge and now holds a certificate for a First Officer and is on his way to become a Yacht Master. During his time on boats he has found that he enjoys the deck work needed to prepare the boat for the upcoming season so he has become pretty good at it.

Since he wanted to get experience from every position on the boat he has started from the bottom and has been working on his way to the top. He has been involved with Corsario since it was just an idea, all the way through the building process.

Very attentive to his guests he will always be ready to take care of his client's needs, questions etc. His spare time includes futsal, the outdoors and traveling.

Deckhand

Hrvoje

Languages: English, Italian

Hrvoje is a deckhand on the sailing yacht Corsario, born in the city of Split where he finished his high school education in electric engineering.

He speaks English and is familiar with Italian, very skilled in communication with the guests and his infectious smile will immediately make them feel welcome on Corsario. He has been a part of the team; you can say family for many years and is experienced in his work.

Beside anchoring, tying the boat and keeping the yacht in good shape he enjoys working with people and that is the main reason why he loves being on boats. Meeting lovely people from all around the world, getting to know different cultures and listening to interesting stories guests have to tell is something he delights in, that is why in his spare time he likes to travel as much as he can so he can get new experiences that will help him in his career. He loves exploring the coast with Corsario which brings him satisfaction he is always ready to share that with the guests.

For Hrvoje sailing on Corsario brings freedom which cannot be described with words –“ you have to feel it, first time I felt that peace on the open sea, I knew I will fall in love with it so as long as I work on the boat I know I will be enjoying it”, he says.

If you happen to see Hrvoje barefoot all the time it is his way of enjoying life and freedom he loves so much while on the sea. In his free time, he likes to spend as much time with his family and friends playing soccer, watching movies and those are just a few of the things he enjoys. And when he is finally tired of resting, he always comes back to the boat – for another “round of peace”

Waiter

Dario

Languages: English

After finishing high school Dario started working as a waiter and he just fell in love with the job. He approaches his job highly professional and with passion being an ambitious person always ready to learn more new things. After 15 years of experience in a 5 * hotels and restaurants he just felt the need for a new challenge in his life so he turned to yacht service and now he is a part of our beautiful Corsario.

His unique professional and personal approach to the guest's needs with care and charm will stay in their memory for a long time.

Dario is an outdoor person and in his free time he likes to be in the nature riding his bicycle and playing basketball and whenever there is a free moment loves to get his hands on a new book.
