

DALMATINO

Dalmatino

Crew

Captain

Andrija

Languages: English

Captain Andrija was born in Split into a family with a 30-year long tradition of maritime enterprise.

He spent most of his childhood helping his father and brothers on different ships owned by their family so he knew very early where he sees himself in the future, happy at sea.

Graduated from the secondary Maritime high school in Split as a nautical officer of the deck but with his eagerness to run a ship on his own, he was slowly upgraded to a Captain, with more than 7 years of experience so far. Andrija is a very athletic person, in his free time his passions are spearfishing and free climbing. He used to play a guitar very well but he gave that hobby up in order to pursue new interests. His crew speaks very highly of him as he runs his ship professionally and diligently. Overall, Andrija is very warm and easy-going person, which you can see for yourself if you decide to book M/S "Dalmatino" for an extraordinary Croatian cruising experience.

Chef

Jasmin

Languages: English, German

Chef Jasmin was born in Pula (Istria), and there he finished culinary school to pursue his dream to become a Chef. His path was always marked with great commitment and dedication to what he was doing, even in his first jobs given as a chef he was put to run main tasks and teams in the kitchen. His jobs were very specific and demanding, but made him to be a good leader and mentor. He is always very simple in explaining the procedures of work and with his knowledge and experience he always tries to make his colleagues thrive. He loves to pass on his knowledge and advices and he believes that for every problem or a challenge there is a solution also.

Jasmin was a part of the team in the famous restaurant Noel in our capital city of Zagreb who recently got a Michelin star. He has knowledge of both English and German. His hobbies are fitness and soccer, he tries to lead a healthy lifestyle and experience new cultures and customs. Certainly, we can say we take pride in Jasmin as our new chef.

Engineer

Ivan

Languages: English

Ivan was born in Split-most beautiful city in the world like he says. He is a ship engine technician and skipper with 10 year of nautical experience. He is a hard-working member of our yacht Dalmatino in whose hands you will feel secure and taken care of. He is certainly a versatile man who has many interests and hobbies.

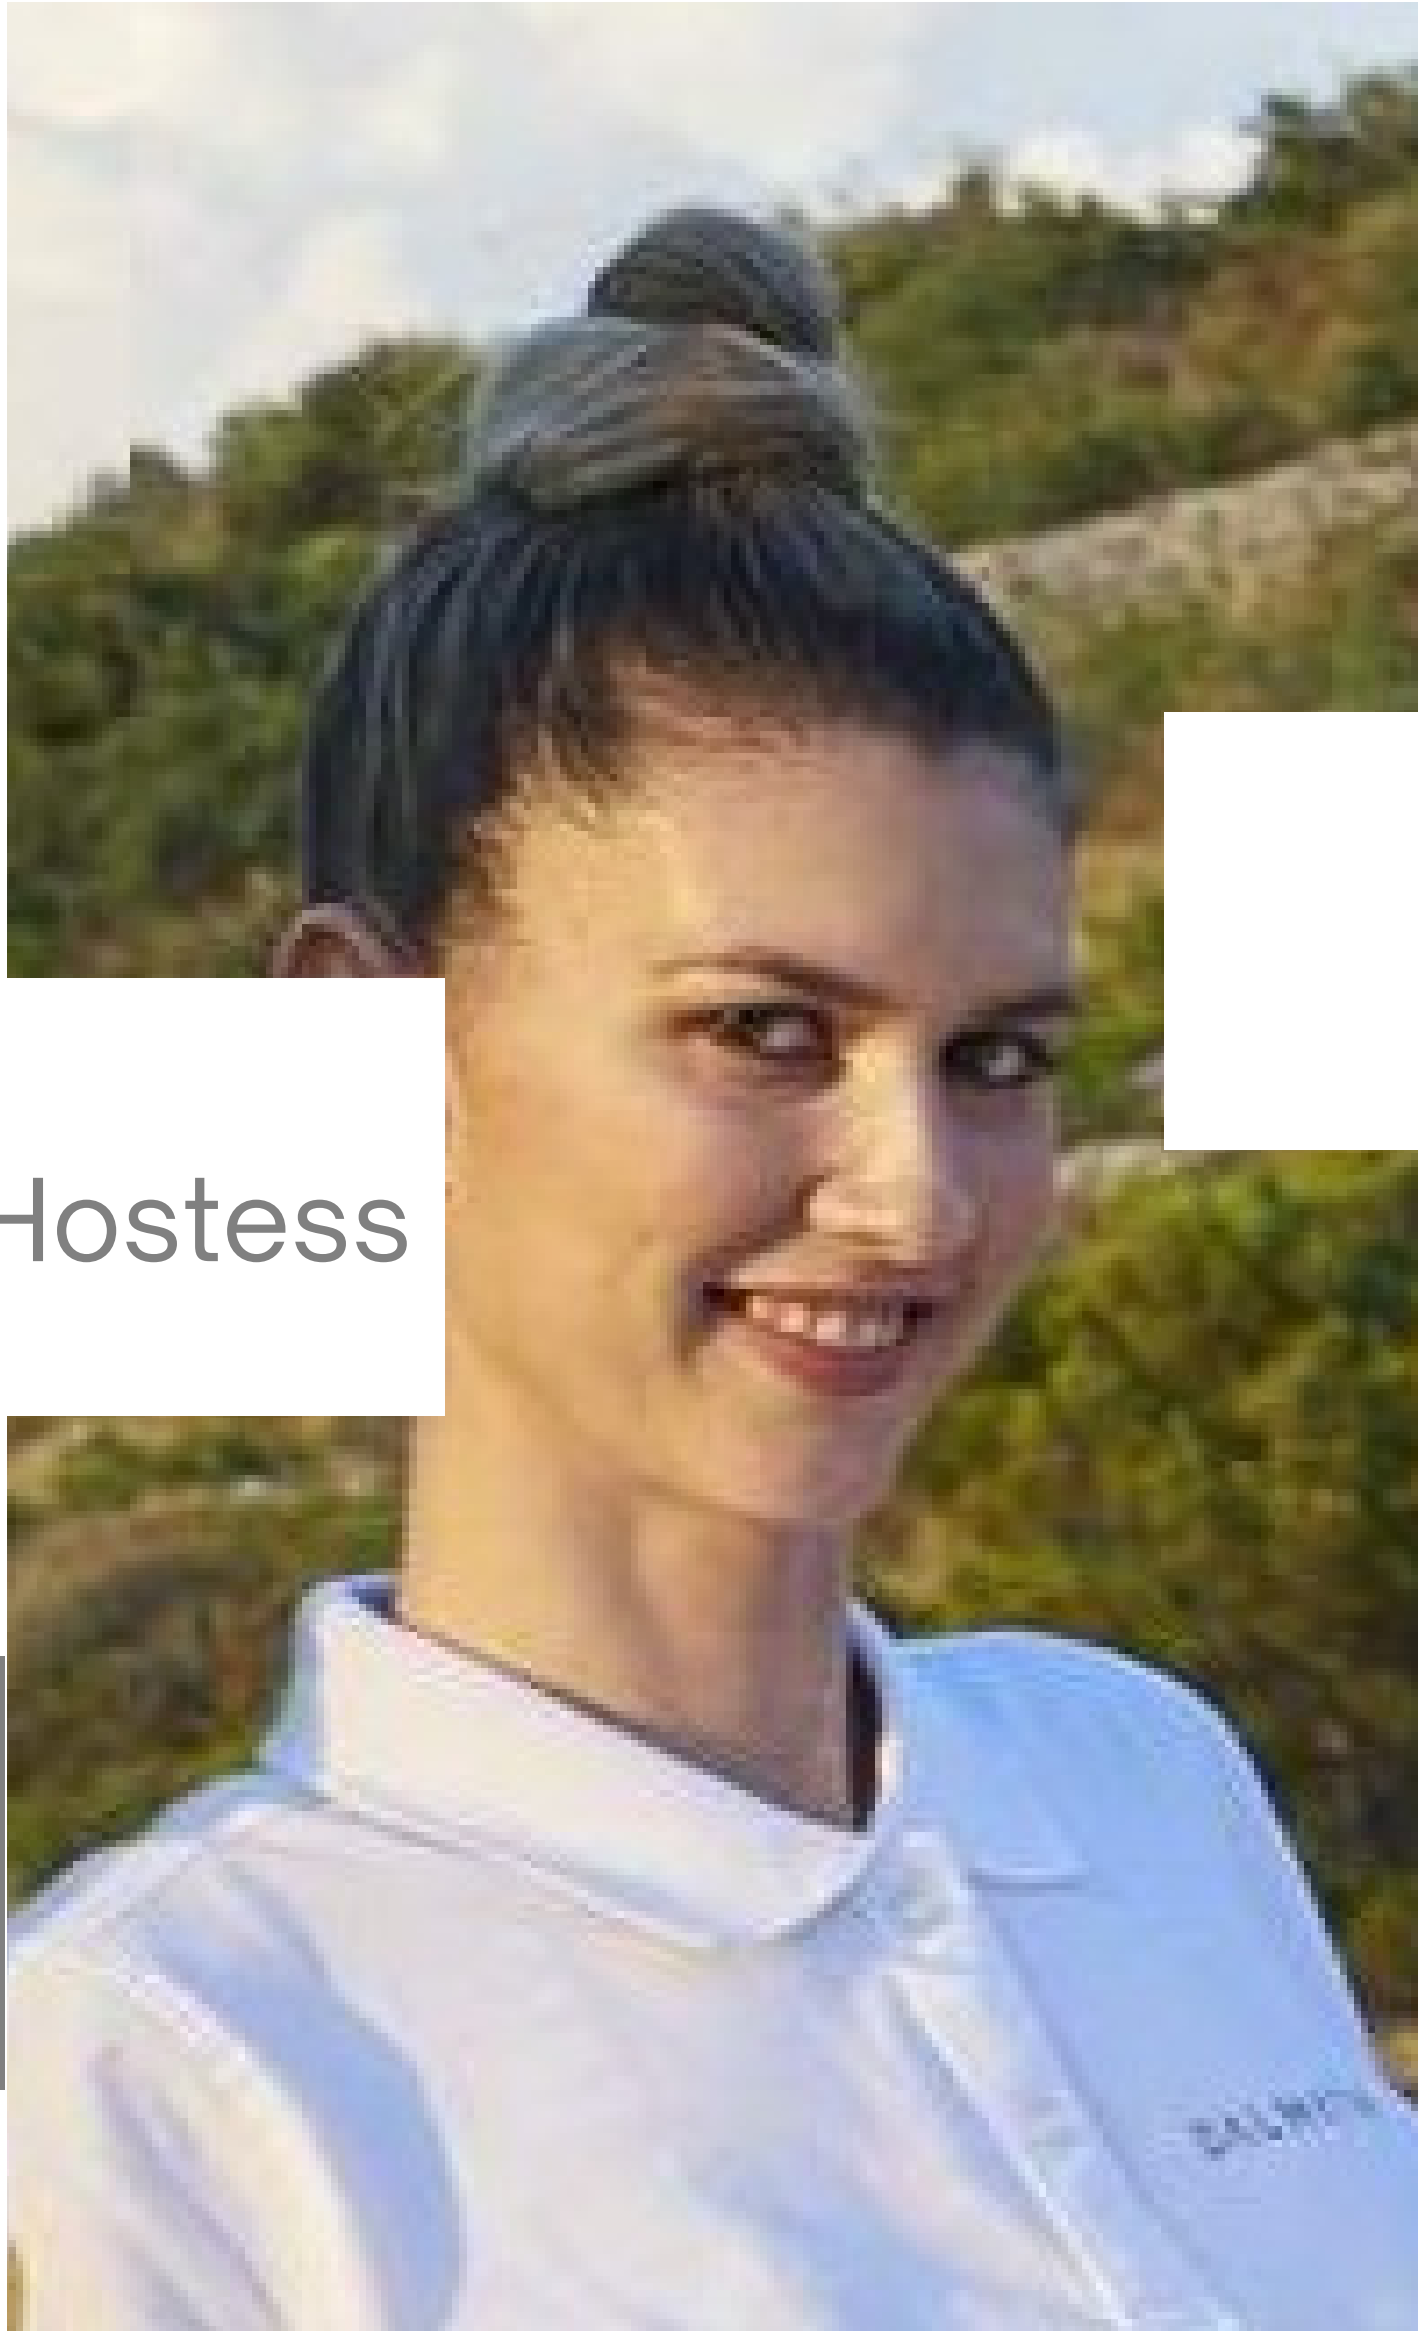

Waiter

Marko

Languages: English

Marko was born in Split where he finished his school education as an electronics technician but being born on the sea made him take a different direction in life and he started working on boats. He is experienced in his job, serving his customers in the best possible way.

People would describe him as a very communicative and open person, speaks fluent English and if you ever need good music, he is your go to guy, Marko is a DJ in his free time.

Hostess

Tanja

Languages: English, Italian, Spanish

She finished Language education high school in OMIŠ, which is a small town located on the sea and known in history for pirates. That should not scare you as it is just a product of its rich culture in sailing and manufacturing of old wooden ships. She speaks fluent English and has knowledge of conversational Italian and Spanish. She is well experienced in working on boats and is eager to serve and make each one of her guests a VIP one. Tanja is opened to new experiences and getting to know new people and places which makes her an easygoing person but very dedicated to her job as a crew member on our Dalmatino. In her free time, she loves going for walks in nature with her pets, doing pilates and hiking so he truly enjoys the outdoors and has that adventurous spirit

Karlo

Languages: English

.Karlo graduated from Maritime High School in Split and that makes him fresh and eager to continue his chosen career. The fact that he is young doesn't mean he doesn't have experience already, he was recommended to the captain of Dalmatino as a hardworking sailor.

From his teenager years during summer he worked on boats and in tourism. He speaks active English. Karlo is a young man ready to be of service on the new yacht Dalmatino.

Sailor

Romano

Languages: English

Growing up on an island meant spending most of his time as a child around town's fishermen and their boats, larger ships and sailors. So, at a very early age he developed love for the sea and everything that had to do with it.

When the time came for his high school education he moved to Split, a bigger city on the coast and there he became an electrician. But somehow that love he felt towards the sea when he was a little child overcame and he decided to start following that calling.

Romano also worked as a national park ranger so certainly he has knowledge of many beautiful places our country offers. He speaks fluent English and Italian. Also, he is very sports active, likes to go on bicycle rides and play soccer. Romano is an experienced, hardworking sailor who cherishes family values, has a very cheerful and easy-going character. Certainly, a great addition to Dalmatino's crew.